Re: End of Life for the 8-port 10/100 Ethernet Switch SRW2008P

To all of our customers and partners;

This is an official End of Life (EOL) notice for the following Ethernet Switch model: SRW2008P.

End-of-Life announcement for this switch has been announced by the manufacturer in October 2010. Effective immediately, i³ International can no longer sell the above model.

No exact replacement exists. Those looking for an Ethernet Switch can purchase the following model from i³ International: FS728TP, a 24-port 10/100 Ethernet Switch.
