

For immediate release:

Re: End of Service for SRX-Pro Server/Remote v2.3 software.

To all of our customers and partners;

i3 International’s standard length of service for any software product is limited to 5 years.

Effective immediately, the following SRX-Pro software products are considered End of Life and Out of Service.

- SRX-Pro Server/Remote v.2.3 and below.
- PACDM v.7.16 and below.

To continue receiving technical support for your SRX-Pro software product, download the latest approved release of corresponding software compatible with your hardware. Approved software releases can be downloaded from i3’s Downloads website: <http://i3international.com/download>

Note: VPC backward compatibility begins with SRX-Pro Server v3.0

For reference, see the table below for the i3’s main software release and End of Service dates.
